

Best of Danish Designed Furniture

Cherry Hill, India's largest general contracting firm, was founded in 1987. The company provides smart, end-to-end solutions for corporate interiors, including networking, access control, CCTV, UPS, PAC, AV, BMS, lighting control, audio-video systems, FA-PA, security systems, flooring, air-conditioning, electricals, plumbing and fire-fighting. They also offer leading brands of imported furniture all over India. Cherry Hill is collaborating with Danish furniture company, Republic of Fritz Hansen, bringing to the country a myriad of innovative and iconic designs.

Fritz Hansen, also known as Republic of Fritz Hansen, is a Danish furniture design company. Fritz Hansen was founded in 1872, when Fritz Hansen, a Danish carpenter, founded his own furniture company and introduced his first chair in steam bent wood in 1915. In 1934, he began his collaboration with Arne Jacobsen resulting in some of the famous, classic icons of Danish design including the Ant, the Series 7, the Grand Prix the Swan and the Egg. From the 1980s to the new millennium, Fritz Hansen has added new designs to the collection including the Essay table by Cecilie Manz, T-NO1 by Todd Bracher, RINby Hiromichi Konno, Plano tables by Pelikan Design and the Ice series by Kasper Salto.

The Alphabet sofa is one of the offerings by Republic of Fritz Hansen. It is a flexible modular sofa system with units that can be combined in a variety of ways. The fully upholstered seat, back and armrest units are manufactured in a core of layered foam with firmer foam on the front edge of the seat. Glides are manufactured in dark grey in a synthetic material. +
